

Kerala Congress leader George joins BJP

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ KOCHI
The BJP, struggling to get a mooring in Kerala, got a shot in the arm as a veteran leader of the Kerala Congress (a party representing the interests of the Church) joined the Hindutva party in New Delhi on Wednesday. George, a seven-time legislator of the Kerala Legislative Assembly and former chief whip during the UDF rule (2011-2016) was received to the party by union ministers Rajeev Chandrasekhar, V Muraleedharan, Prakash Javadekar MP, Anil Antony, national general secretary and Radhey Shyam Aggarwal MP. The Pioneer had reported early last month that George was all set to join the BJP. A crusader against corruption and a fire brand leader,

George was the first Christian leader to sound the alarm bell against Love Jihad and Narcotics Jihad which was later taken up by the spiritual leaders of the Catholic community to which he belongs. He also merged the Janapaksham, a political outfit launched by him into the BJP. George's son Shaun and the entire Janapaksham leaders too joined the BJP. "This decision is a fall out of our understanding that Prime Minister Narendra Modi is the only national leader who is working sincerely for the progress of India. More and more members of the Christian community will join the BJP in days to come," said George after joining the BJP. Both the CPI (M) and the Congress aided by Islamist forces had joined hands in the 2021 assembly polls to defeat George, in his eighth hustling in the electoral battle and he lost the poll by a wafer thin majority. Having joined the Kerala Congress as a fiery student leader, George won seven successive elections to the assembly, a rare feat in a State like Kerala. George is joining the BJP at a time when the Marxists and Congress are blaming the BJP for the communal pogrom in Manipur. "The people in Kerala are not aware of the complex reality of the caste politics in Manipur. The entire media has gone gaga over the embarrassment faced by the BJP due to the Manipur riots. The reality is entirely different and I myself will clear the apprehension in the minds of the community in Kerala," George told The Pioneer. Interestingly, there were suggestions from various Hindu outfits in Kerala to field George as a candidate for the Lok Sabha polls from Pathanamthitta constituency. George said there is no difference between the

CPI(M)-led LDF and the Congress-led UDF. "Both the forces are the same and the difference is only on their names. What they have been doing all these years was to cheat the people," he said. K T Paily, a former official of Indian Railways who is an active leader of the Catholic community, said George is a force to reckon with in Kerala politics. "But I am not sure about the surge in votes cast during the election. George commands respect all over the State," said Paily. The Christian Alliance for Social Action (CASA) welcomed George's move to join the Hindutva party. "It will pay rich dividends and there is a possibility of the BJP opening its account in Kerala," said Kevin Peter, president, CASA. Father Shaiju Kurian, a priest of Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church and 47 families belonging to the sect had joined the BJP in December 2023, the first of its kind development in the State.

Farmers income 'has almost doubled' since 2018: Yogi

General N Kalaiselvi and a large number of farmers from different states and districts of the country were present in the programme.

PTI ■ LUCKNOW

Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Wednesday said the farmers income "has almost doubled" since 2018 and this "positive trend" extends beyond Uttar Pradesh. The chief minister said the farmers across the country are embracing agricultural diversification, aligning with Prime Minister Narendra Modi's "visionary approach," consequently "doubling their income". Inaugurating the 'Kisan Mela' organised by the Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants (CIMAP) on Picnic Spot Road here, Adityanath highlighted Prime Minister Modi's transformative vision. The chief minister, according to a press statement issued by the state government, elaborated on how the prime minister set the target of doubling the farmers' income by 2022 and subsequently launched various schemes such as the Soil Health Card, Prime Minister Crop Insurance, Agricultural Irrigation, and Kisan Samman Nidhi for steering the farmers toward economic upliftment, coupled with a robust integration of scientific research and innovation. Underlining the tangible impact of these initiatives, Adityanath said the farmers' income has almost doubled since 2018. "This positive trend extends beyond Uttar Pradesh as the farmers across the country are embracing agricultural diversification, aligning with Prime Minister Modi's visionary approach, consequently doubling their income," he said. Highlighting the fertile land and abundant water resources in Uttar Pradesh, the chief minister outlined the state's pivotal role in agricultural production, contributing over 22 per cent of the country's food grains despite having 11 per cent cultivable land. He noted the presence of 89 agricultural science centers and four state agricultural universities, with the establishment of the fifth one underway. Adityanath stressed the government's proactive role in connecting the farmers of Uttar Pradesh to medicinal farming and horticulture, and promoting herbal products. This diversification, he explained, has significantly increased the farmers' earnings, becoming a transformative catalyst in improving their lives. The chief minister also inaugurated an exhibition at the fair and inspected the stalls set up while interacting with the farmers. Notably, over 4,000 farmers from more than 15 states participated in the fair. The CIMAP will also launch an 'Aroma Mission App' for the farmers involved in cultivating medicinal plants. This app will act as a bridge between the farmers and the industry. Agriculture Minister Surya Pratap Shahi, Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) Director

Three Rohingya men get 10 years jail for human trafficking

PTI ■ NUH

A court in Haryana's Nuh district has sentenced three Rohingya men to 10 years of rigorous imprisonment in a human trafficking case of 2021. Additional district and sessions judge Ajay K Verma pronounced the sentence on Tuesday. The court also imposed a fine of Rs 10,000 on each of the convicts. According to public prosecutor Pratap Singh, the Child Welfare Committee conducted raids at their place in Malab and rescued the women. Following medical examination, it was revealed that the two women were raped and tortured. An FIR was registered under relevant provisions of the IPC at the City police station in Nuh and the three accused were arrested in December 2021. The accused had confessed to the crime and were sent into judicial custody, the police said. "During the trial, the prosecution proved all the charges," the public prosecutor said.

Hafeez Ahmed and Mohammad Yunus — took the two women to Malab village in Nuh district and decided to sell them in Kashmir Valley for Rs 70,000 each, the police said. Acting on the information, a team of the Child Welfare Committee conducted raids at their place in Malab and rescued the women. Following medical examination, it was revealed that the two women were raped and tortured. An FIR was registered under relevant provisions of the IPC at the City police station in Nuh and the three accused were arrested in December 2021. The accused had confessed to the crime and were sent into judicial custody, the police said. "During the trial, the prosecution proved all the charges," the public prosecutor said.
